

UNDAUNTED, FLIER WILL TRY DAWN TO DUSK TRIP AGAIN

Lieut. Maughan Is Convinced
He Can Succeed Despite Two Failures.

LEAK IN OIL TANK FORCES HIM DOWN

Had Covered 1680 Miles at
Average Speed Of 135
Miles An Hour.

BULLETIN

Washington, July 20.—Lieut. Russell R. Maughan will not be permitted to make another attempt at a dawn to dusk flight across the continent until next summer, it was officially announced at the War department this afternoon.

Rock Springs, Wyo., July 20.—Despite the fact he has twice failed to span the North American continent in a single day with his high-speed army airplane, Lieut. Russell L. Maughan today declared he is convinced he can succeed, and will start the trip again just as soon as possible if officials at Washington will permit.

He made this statement here today as he prepared to return east.

The daring flier was forced down here late yesterday almost within reach of his goal—the flying field at San Francisco—when a leaking oil line endangered his motor. A hurried examination by experts at the local flying field made it certain the trip could not be continued.

There were rumors of sabotage to the plane used by Lieut. Maughan, but these were not generally credited, although it was known a code telegram of warning had been dispatched to all landing fields on Maughan's route.

When asked whether he thought his plane had been tampered with somewhere along the route, Lieut. Maughan replied:

"That is absurd. The leak occurred at place where it would have been necessary to remove part of the engine in order to get at it."

"It was merely a case of the solder becoming loose as a result of vibration."

Fumes Make Flier Ill

Afters leaving Cheyenne, Lieut. Maughan in an effort to reach Sellduro, Utah, his next scheduled stopping place, where possible permanent repair could be made, speeded his plane up to 170 miles an hour for 245 miles. Near Rock Springs the leak became so bad that oil dropped from the cooler in buckets.

Fumes from the burning oil made Maughan very ill and realizing that his mount would be unable to negotiate the distance, circled over the almost deserted landing field and brought his plane to the ground.

Lieut. Maughan said this morning that he probably would fly to Denver, Utah to see his mother wife and children, after which he would return to Mitchell field by airplane.

Lieut. Maughan covered in all a distance of 1,680 miles at an average speed of 135.6 miles an hour. This distance is nearly two thirds of the continent. He was in the air a total of 13 hours and nine minutes.

CHAUTAUQUA TAGS PLACED ON AUTOS

Novel Features Are Booked
For Seven-day Program
Opening Aug. 19.

Chautauqua booster tags are being attached to local automobile licenses this week by advance man, B. K. Hall, who has arrived to stimulate interest in the seven-day program, which opens Aug. 19.

The two color tags, in orange and black, measuring 5x14 inches, are making their initial appearance this year as an advertising stunt. Chautauqua dates printed in black upon the orange background are distinctive and readable at a great distance. Mr. Hall is having the active co-operation of the local committee in placing the tags on automobile throughout the country.

One of the novel features of this year's program will be an accordion concert by Joseph Baldi. The instrument which he plays is a piano-acordion with 120 bass keys and 43 treble keys and is said to be one of the most beautiful instruments of its kind in use today, being of pure white with silver trimmings.

Among the high-grade attractions are Hon. W. L. Harding, ex-governor of Iowa, lecturer on "The Clock Strikes Twelve;" "Turn to the Right," comedy drama in three acts; William Dallas Campbell, "Apostle of Better Homes;" National Male quartet; Geoffrey O'Hara and Victor's band in two concertos.

Season tickets have been placed in the hands of the local committee.

Maccabee Women To Attend Big Outing

Salem review No. 238, Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees Thursday night accepted an invitation from Mrs. Shindler, district deputy, to a district picnic to be held August 16, at Idora park, Youngstown. There will be a picnic dinner and probably drills by some of the reviews of the district.

NATIONAL WOMEN'S PARTY IN SESSION

Above: Alice Paul, Miss Anita Pollitzer, and Mrs. Clarence M. Smith.
Below: Mrs. Oliver H. Belmont, Susan B. Anthony, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

The memory of Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton, leaders in the fight for women's suffrage, is being honored at the Seneca Falls and Rochester (N. Y.) meetings of the conference of the Women's Party July 20-22. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, president of the Women's Party, presided. Miss Anita Pollitzer of Charles-ton, S. C., was national secretary, and Mrs. Clarence M. Smith was acting state chairman for New York state. Miss Alice Paul led the fight for the adoption of a resolution demanding a federal constitutional amendment declaring for equal rights for women.

New Marriage Law Checkmates Young Couple From Salem

A young couple from Salem was checkmated at the probate office Thursday afternoon by the new marriage law and failed to get a marriage license because the bride is only 18 years old and lacked the consent of her mother to the proposed marriage.

The father of the bride was with the couple but the law demands the presence of both parents. They will return later with both parents of the bride Thursday afternoon.

They found everything proceeding in regular routine with the children well, contented and busy. Judge Kidde stated that the program seemed to be a game of croquet, eats, baseball, eats, swinging, eats, hiking, eats sleeping and eats.

The appetites developed by the youngsters are simply tremendous and there is no stint to the food. Last Monday when they assembled for the weight tests it was found that the youngsters had all gained in weight, although they had been in camp but few days. Next week records will be broken.

Miss Steele, of Cleveland, a graduate of Western Reserve, is nurse in charge of the camp and her 20 charges obey her like clock work. There has been no sickness of any sort.

Mr. Speaker, president of the association that brought the camp into being, is delighted with the progress made with the children.

TROOP 7 IN FRONT AGAIN; SCOUT MEET INTEREST GROWING

Wall Scaling Contest Will Decide Championship
Of City Troops.

Troop One's tenure of first place in the city Boy Scout meet was short and sweet.

Scouts of Troop 7, fighting with their backs to the wall for a chance to figure in the final reckoning, did them selves proud last night at Reilly field and are once again setting the pace with 42 points to their credit.

Scoutmaster Coles' county champions of Troop 1 are still with striking distance with 37 points and Troop 3 is third with 15 points.

The wall scaling contest Saturday evening at the rotary hut will decide the championship of the city and Troop 1, always strong in this event, plans to enter two teams. Troop 7 must place second in this event to win the meet.

Working Hard To Win

Scoutmaster Parker Lowell has worked hard to develop Salem's youngest troop into an organization that could hold its own with any, and Troop 7 has been runner-up in the last two county meets, finishing last year but one point behind the winners and this year three points behind.

His scouts say they are determined to bring him one championship before he leaves for Akron in September and the golden moment seems at this time to be within their grasp.

Last night Troop 7 made a clean sweep in the first aid rescue race by taking all three places. This is the first time a clean sweep has been scored in the meet. Troop 1 having taken eight points with first and second places in the swim, and Troop 7

BODIES OF GIRLS FOUND IN RIVER

Elyria, O., July 20.—Eleanor Ott, 11, daughter of George Ott, Birmingham and Gladys White, 15, daughter of James White of this city, were drowned in the Vermilion river. Their bodies were found in the river after their disappearance late yesterday afternoon.

W. H. Johnson, Lorain, passing in an automobile, dragged the unconscious form of Mrs. Ott from the river after she had made a futile attempt to rescue the children.

RUBBER PLANT TO OPERATE MONDAY

The plant of the Salem Rubber Co. will start operating again next Monday after a shutdown for boiler repairs, the company officials announced Friday morning.

Fresh Air, Plenty To Eat, Building Up County Wards

Children Gaining In Weight Tests At Fresh Air Camp Reveal.

Lisbon, July 20.—Atty. Charles S. Speaker, president of the County Public Health association, in company with Judge Lodge Riddle inspected the Fresh Air Camp for children Thursday afternoon.

They found everything proceeding in regular routine with the children well, contented and busy. Judge Kidde stated that the program seemed to be a game of croquet, eats, baseball, eats, swinging, eats, hiking, eats sleeping and eats.

The appetites developed by the youngsters are simply tremendous and there is no stint to the food. Last Monday when they assembled for the weight tests it was found that the youngsters had all gained in weight, although they had been in camp but few days. Next week records will be broken.

COLLISION OF CAR AND BUS HURTS 18

Bus Is Hurled Thirty Feet And Overturned; Women Panic-stricken.

New York, July 20.—Eighteen persons, mostly women, were injured, even seriously, today in a collision between a trolley car and a loaded municipal bus on the Lower East Side. The bus was hurled thirty feet by the collision and overturned.

Panic reigned but passersby and police reserves extricated the victims.

Seventeen of those injured were passengers of the bus. The other injured person was the motorman of the car. He was arrested, charged with assault. He gave slippery rails as the reason for his failure to halt the car.

The bus, carrying 35 passengers, had its superstructure demolished in turning over.

All horseshoe pitchers in the city are invited to enter. Entries may be telephoned if the player is unable to secure an entry blank.

TRAINMEN BURIED UNDER COAL PILE

Logansport, Ind., July 20.—Four of the crew of five on a Pennsylvania switch train were killed early today near Crawfordsville, Ind., when the locomotive and three cars loaded with coal struck a derail and plunged over a 25-foot embankment. Three bodies were taken from beneath 150 tons of coal.

NO ONE SEEKING INFIRMARY POST

Commissioners Clerk L. H. Johnson has received no applications for the job of county home superintendent, a position made vacant by the resignation of Lyle B. Harris. The hesitation displayed by several who were believed to be candidates for the job is surprising to county officials.

Flies From Capital To East Palestine On Business Trip

East Palestine, July 20.—James Cole, 25, of Darlington, Pa., drove his airplane from Washington, D. C. to this city Thursday where he transacted business with Atty. L. M. Kyes, concerning an automobile accident near Columbiana about a year ago in which Cole almost lost his life.

He landed on the Homer Ellwanger farm near Unity and came to this city by automobile. After completing his business he returned to his plane and set out for his home in Darlington.

BARNYARD GOLFERS WILL COMPETE IN CITY TOURNAMENT

All Horseshoe Pitchers In Salem Are Invited To Enter Matches.

A meeting of the horseshoe committee of the Salem Athletic association was held last night and it was decided to proceed with a city wide barnyard golf tournament.

Entry blanks are being prepared and can be secured from Percy Tucker, Eli Floyd or Charles Conourn, the committee in charge. They may also be secured from Ray F. Carter at the Community House.

The date for the tournament has not been fixed but it will be settled in a few days. In the meantime all who wish to enter should give in their names at once.

An entry fee of 25 cents will be charged. This money will be used to buy prizes and to meet the expenses of the tournament.

The players entering will play in groups of eight; one to eight will be in the first group; nine to sixteen in the second group and so on. Each man in each group will play every other man in that group one game, making a total of seven 50-point games. The highest men in each group will play in the finals.

The courts at Reilly field will be put into first class condition for these games. All shoes used must be regulation and the pitching will be according to national rules.

All horseshoe pitchers in the city are invited to enter. Entries may be telephoned if the player is unable to secure an entry blank.

FIND MORE BOOZE AT DALTON HOME

Charles Dalton of West Point was taken into custody by East Palestine dry officials late Thursday and for the second time is facing a charge of liquor law violation.

Dalton was lodged in the East Palestine jail Thursday night and was to appear for hearing Friday afternoon before Acting Mayor Yoder.

During the raid at his home three gallons of raisin jack were found.

Salem Grange Hears Wilms Talk On Wheat

John Wilms gave a talk on "Wheat" at a meeting of Salem grange Thursday evening at the hall near the Denot rd. A reading "Mind Your Own Business" was contributed by Mrs. Hannah Baker.

Plans were made to clean the hall before the next meeting in two weeks. This work will be done by the women of the grange.

Diver Strikes Boat Breaking His Back

Earl Wilkins, 27, of Beloit, drowns in Hawkins Lake At Berlin Center; Fancy Dive Fatal.

Diving off the diving board at Hawkins lake, a small lake near Berlin Center, about 5 p. m. Thursday, Earl Wilkins, 27, of Beloit, struck a blow under the board, breaking his back. He drowned before help could reach him.

Wilkins, who had been swimming with several friends during the afternoon, was attempting some fancy dives when the accident happened. Yelling at some one on the bank he said he was going to do a flip over a boat that had become unfastened from its moorings and was floating near the diving board.

Wilkins' spring as he jumped was not hard enough and he struck the side of the boat, tearing the back of his neck open as he tried to dip over the boat and breaking his back. Wilkins screamed once, then turned over and sank.

James Irey of Salem, who was fishing at the lake and saw the man give to his death, said that several swimmers started for the spot immediately but were unable to catch the man as he slipped into the water. It is believed that Wilkins was dead before he sank because of the terrible crash against the boat that ended the high jump from the board.

The body was recovered ten minutes later. Doctors pronounced the man dead and no effort was made to resuscitate him.

Wilkins was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Wilkins of Beloit.

London July 20.—The German embassy was instructed today to inform the British that the Berlin government cannot order cessation of passive resistance in the Ruhr unless French evacuation is guaranteed by the allies.

Germany suggested that if the June reparations offer of the Berlin government was accepted "mortgages" guaranteeing indemnity payments would be delivered within six weeks. However Berlin would expect evacuation by French and Belgian troops to commence as soon as the mortgages were delivered.

There was another meeting of the cabinet at noon when the British reparations note was again considered. Premier Stanley Baldwin was hopeful that the draft of the British note could be finished up today. There has been continuous exchanges of views between the British foreign office and Count St. Aulaire the French ambassador in the past few days.

The French are showing more willingness for concessions than at any time since the Ruhr was occupied last January.

Up to the present, however, the French concessions have not met the demands made by Germany as conditions for cessation of passive resistance.

British Note Delayed

The Germans want restoration of civil authority in the Ruhr, but the French insist upon remaining in the form of "invisible occupation," until the reparations payments are started.

The continued delay in the sending of the British note is due to a desire to induce France to enter into a united front to restore Palestine to the Jews and reunite the ten lost tribes of Israel.

A subpoena has also been issued for former President Woodrow Wilson but service was held up at the request of defense counsel.

Who Invented 'Em?

SOMEBOODY is spoofing us, or else the colored brother must forego his claims to having invented "galloping dominoes," "African golf," or by whatever name you are familiar with the fateful "sevens" and "elevens." Of course the dictionaries attempt to trace the name "craps" back to earlier European sports terms and to a different significance, but every "nigger"—as distinguished, of course, from every negro—knows that "craps am ah col-joined invenshun," and is willing to prove it by demonstrating how much more willing a "nick" or a "natural" will flow from the fingers of a darky than from even the most experienced of white "bone hooks."

But now into the debate comes the serious-minded Smithsonian Institution of Washington, D. C., to which a report has been made that craps originated, unless they too had it from more primitive hands, among an unknown and now extinct race of people on the land we call New Mexico.

Dr. J. Walker Fewkes, of the bureau of American ethnology, recently was sent on an exploration jaunt into the strange district, and among the objects he unearthed was a piece of decorated pottery upon which was depicted an animated crap game, in which one of the players was down to his last arrow head or wampum bit. By misfortune the part of the pottery showing the triumph of the fellow who had the loser "faded" is broken away, so that we cannot tell whether it was with stoical indifference or ghoulish glee that the victor viewed his victim in those far-off days. The discovery, however, suggests that it was an Indian and not a negro who first called upon "Little Joe" to come and sit right up on his daddy's knee.

After Seventy-Five Years
THE present week will witness the seventy-fifth anniversary of the first "equal rights meeting" held in the United States. The event will be celebrated in Seneca Falls, N. Y., the same place where Lucretia Mott and Elizabeth Cady Stanton promulgated their famous declaration in July, 1848.

No greater success in any social movement of the world ever was achieved than that which has crowned the efforts of the women of England and America in their long battle for equal rights.

Within seventy-five years the entire status of woman has changed in degree beyond the dreams of the early pioneer visionaries of the cause of political equality. Still there is much to be done before our emancipated sisters will feel content in the possession of "complete equality."

There are matters of wages, protective legislation, contract rights, child welfare, rights to wider representation, marriage discriminations and other questions and problems which the militant feminine leaders of the day declare can be determined only when a federal amendment shall have stripped the last distinction of sex from political and social consideration.

But this business of equality worked rather well during the most heroic epochs of the old Norse ascendancy; it was fairly successful in the Athens of Pericles; it functioned efficiently, if not attractively, during the French Revolution. Perhaps the women of America may succeed as well as their sisters of the olden times. In any event, so long as we have Nancy Astors, Mrs. Belmonts, Carrie Chapman Catts and other lady palladians of their forceful fiber, we can suggest no reason for stopping the onward march of the feminine goal of fifty-fifty.

CHURCHMEN TAKE PLEASING STAND

CONFERENCE ON RELIGIOUS AND NAVAL TRAINING FOR SOLDIERS IS COMMENDED.

SPEAKS FOR PREPAREDNESS

Army and Navy Officials Think This Pronouncement Comes at a Time When It Will Be Effective Against Communist Propaganda.

By EDWARD B. CLARK
Washington.—The War and Navy departments and officers of the army and navy generally are pleased over the pronouncements and findings adopted unanimously by the recent "Conference on Religious and Moral Training for Soldiers."

The conference consisted of more than sixty distinguished educators, clergymen of various denominations, leaders of welfare organizations and twenty-five chaplains who rendered exceptional service during the World war. It was individualized by the fact that its personnel was drawn from the ranks of Protestantism, Roman Catholicism and the Jewish denomination. While the sessions were in progress, the leadership was taken at different times by representatives of all these faiths. Among the presiding officers were Bishop William Fraser McDowell, Methodist Episcopal bishop of Washington; Father Francis P. Duffy of New York, who won the Distinguished Service Cross during the war, and Dr. Cyrus Adler, president of the Jewish Welfare board.

The War and Navy department authorities were particularly pleased over the findings and pronouncements of this conference of churchmen, teachers and welfare workers because from the ranks of some of the churches and largely from the ranks of the welfare workers have come the bitter enemies of anything like same preparedness for the United States armed forces.

COMES AT THE RIGHT TIME.

What the authorities regard as ebullitions of dangerous animosities to American well-being have come to a great extent from so-called welfare workers—men and women who have been in their life work largely associated in social centers and elsewhere with persons who are believers in the communistic form of government, and who believe that no government at all is the best kind of state under which people should live. It is thought in Washington that this announcement of the conference of representatives of religion, the teaching profession, and welfare work generally has come at a time when it will do the most good.

The pronouncements and findings were prepared by the following committee: Bishop William Fraser McDowell of Washington (Methodist), chairman; President John M. Thomas of Pennsylvania State college; Rabbi Morris S. Lazaron of the Baltimore Hebrew congregation; Rev. William F. Barron, moderator of the National Council of Congregational Churches; Bishop James DeWolf Perry, Jr., of Rhode Island (Episcopal); Rev. John J. Burke, general secretary of the National Catholic Welfare council; Rev. Samuel Z. Batten, secretary of the department of social education of the American Baptist Publication society; Col. W. P. Jenkins of the Salvation Army, and Rev. Jason N. Pierce of the First Congregational church of Washington, D. C.

DECLARED AGAINST "FALSE PACIFISM."

The pronouncements and findings of the conference on religious and moral training for soldiers was in part as follows:

"Peace at home within our own country, peace among all the nations of the earth is a sacred mission to which America has devoted herself and her resources. To pursue it unarmed and undefended would be the quickest way to invite war. Against the curse of militarism America has traditionally set herself. Militarism is absolutely strange to the genius of her institutions.

"We deprecate any attempt made under the cloak of religion and in the name of a false pacifism, to deny the support of the churches to the well-being of our army and navy. To the churches and to the government, the religious welfare of the men must be a primary concern. For that reason chaplains of the different denominations are commissioned. They minister to the religious needs of the men. They care for their souls. They bring to them the word of God; and refresh and renew their spirit. From out of their work come peace, strength of character, fidelity and fitness for the obligations of individual and social life."

As has been told frequently recently in letters from Washington, the efforts of communists in the United States to assert their doctrines and their teachings, now that the war is over and they are fairly free from the dangers of interference from the authorities, are being met sharply and vigorously by various patriotic organizations which have sprung into being within the last few months to help the longer established bodies in their work. The American Legion has been working along these lines for some time, and now the efforts of that organization are being supplemented by women's clubs throughout the country, by constitutional government leagues, and by defense societies.

ROGERS PREPARED FOR HOMECOMING

Many Former Residents Now Prominent In Other Towns, Will Speak.

Indications point to a very large assemblage of people in Rogers at the homecoming for Middleton township on Sunday. The exercises for the homcomers and their friends will be held in the large Chautauqua tent at Rogers and will begin promptly at 12:30.

In response to invitations sent out to those selected by the committee to appear on the program, Judge N. B. Billingsley, Hon. C. B. Galbreath, Prof. A. Y. Taylor, Judge L. F. Farr, Prof. W. G. Cope, Hon. H. D. Cope, Rev. Conklin, Atty. Robert Perry, Atty. Wm. Faulk, Dr. P. C. Hartford, Atty. L. M. Kyes and others have consented to be present and take part in the exercises.

Ex-Postmaster General Wm. H. Hays sent his regrets on account of previous engagements which renders his attendance impossible, but he expresses his desire to be present at some future homecoming for Middleton township.

HAD ITS USE.

Bluebellie had just been introduced to a newcomer in the rosebed garden of girls and, as girls will, started in to impress her.

"We have a big town house," "How nice," said the newcomer. "We winter in Florida," went on the other.

SOCIETY

Wedding Date Announced

Miss Doris Matthews has chosen July 25, as the date for her marriage to Cecil Chessman.

News of the event was conveyed to a group of the bride-elect's friends at a very enjoyable party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. L. D. Beardmore at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. L. Fults, North Union st.

Miss Matthews was showered with gifts for her new home. Bridge was a favorite diversion and the prizes were awarded Miss Matthews and Mrs. Paul Myers. Mrs. Clarence Lash of Pittsburgh, was an out of town guest.

A lunch was served by the hostess and the guests found the cards bearing the date of the wedding on their trays.

Miss Matthews, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Matthews, was graduated from Salem High school and attended Ohio State university.

Mr. Chessman is a son of George Chessman. He was graduated from Salem High school and attended Illinois State university. He is employed by the Columbian Cooperage Company. The young people have a wide circle of friends here.

Picnic At Diehl Lake

Members of the Thursday Afternoon club and their children picnicked Thursday at Diehl lake, near Ellsworth. The day was enjoyed at the usual picnic diversions. Miss Belle Riley, Steubenville, who is a guest of Mrs. R. R. Johnson, was in the company. In one week the members will meet with Mrs. Stanton Heck, McKinley ave.

Farr Class Picnic

The annual picnic of the Farr class of the First Christian church was enjoyed by 40 people Thursday night when the outing was held at Westville lake. The guest list was composed of the class members and their invited friends.

A picnic supper, contests and games and boating were the principal diversions.

South Side Club

Gathering at the home of Mrs. John Yates, Lison rd., Thursday afternoon, South Side club associates devoted three hours to visiting and needlework. The hostess served a lunch. Mrs. Mary Hiddleston, St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. L. C. Hoopes, Salem, were included in the guest list.

Ellsworth Avenue Club

Miss Gertrude Mellott, this city, and Miss Ruth Shoar were included in the guest list when Mrs. Louis Flick was hostess to Ellsworth Avenue club members Thursday afternoon at her home, Ellsworth rd. Mrs. Howard Minser will receive the members in two weeks.

Friends Missionary Circle

At an all-day session of the Friends Missionary circle of the First Friends church, held Thursday at the home of Mrs. O. J. Dixon, New Albany rd., the members devoted the time to sewing on articles to be sent in a Christmas box to India. A covered dish dinner was enjoyed.

Elite Club

Mrs. Howard Holloway, Washington st., was hostess at an informal gathering of Elite club associates Thursday afternoon at her home. Mrs. J. B. Cobedesch was welcomed as a visitor. In two weeks the members will be guests of Mrs. James Hassey, Depot st.

Picnic At Lake Park

The Misses Nora Peoples, Agnes Houston, Mary French, Dorothy Gilbert, Helen Whinery and Alfarra Pearce held a picnic at Lake park Thursday night. Following a picnic supper, boating, bathing and dancing were features of the entertainment.

Sterling Club

Visiting occupied the hours when members of the Sterling club were guests Thursday evening of Miss Tamar Thumm, Franklin ave. Plans were discussed for a picnic to be held in connection with the next meeting.

Bethlehem Class

A social time and lunch followed the regular meeting of the Bethlehem class of the M.E. church Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Phil Chancellor, McKinley ave. A picnic dinner will add interest to the August meeting.

Goodwill Club

A lunch and the usual pastimes were enjoyed at the Thursday afternoon assembly of the Goodwill club at which Mrs. Richard Elton presided at her home, Goshen ave. The second Thursday in August the members will meet again.

Steffet-Ritchey

Rev. E. P. Carson of Lisbon, Thursday afternoon performed the wedding ceremony for Mrs. Jennie Steffet and Allen Ritchey, both of Salem.

Miss Agnes Manning

Miss Agnes Manning, Miss Little Monaghan and Miss Pauline Conlan, who have been guests of Miss Manning's brother, Rev. A. J. Manning, Ohio ave., returned Thursday to their homes in Cleveland.

Ralph Anderson, who spent several weeks here with his parents, left Thursday evening for Oteon, N. C., where he is taking treatment at a government hospital for veterans of the World war.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Schropp have concluded a visit with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Schropp, West Seventh st., and left Friday morning for their home in Lebanon, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Eitemiller, McKeepsport, Pa., arrived here Thursday afternoon to visit the former's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Schropp, West Seventh st.

Mrs. Margaret Morlan and Miss Cora Hurford have gone to Quaker Hill, near Sebring, to remain there during the services of the annual Sebring camp meeting.

Mrs. McCulloch's Luncheon
Lavender and pink sweet peas decorated the tables and the same tones were favored in the pretty appointments at a delightful luncheon given by Mrs. R. S. McCulloch, Franklin ave., at 12:30 p. m. Thursday at the Salem Country club, at which she entertained 75 friends.

Most of the guests were interested in bridge, 15 tables being employed in the game. The prize winners were Mrs. James Atchison, Mrs. Hazel Mather Walton and Mrs. Russell Gibbs.

The out of town guests were Miss Helen Gailey and Miss Jean Marshall, New Castle, Pa., and Mrs. R. M. Morrison, Youngstown, who are house guests of Mrs. McCulloch, and Mrs. Clyde McKee and daughter, Miss Frances, Youngstown.

Woman's Bible Class
The monthly social meeting of the Woman's Bible class of the Presbyterian church was held Thursday afternoon at the church with Mrs. Walter Harwood in charge of the program, which consisted of a reading given by Mrs. John Hundertmark and a recitation by Miss Riddle. These numbers were all well received. A contest entertained, with Mrs. Arner winning the honors, and refreshments were served. The annual picnic will be held at the regular time of the next meeting, the third Thursday in August.

INQUIRE INTO SEA'S SECRETS

Scientists Have Discovered Many Things Concerning the Denizens of Ocean's Depths.

Humans may have their matrimonial tangles, but they are nothing to the matrimonial problems of the native oyster. In "Animals of the Sea," F. Martin Duncan, F. Z. S., tells us that each individual changes its sex at different periods, but the authorities do not agree as to the sex with which the oyster starts its life. Young oysters enjoy but forty-eight hours' freedom as moving creatures; then they settle down for life. Among the oyster's enemies is the starfish. An invasion of "five-fingers" will sometimes destroy a whole bed of oysters in a single night. Some most interesting points gleaned from this book include: The female lobster has been known to produce 100,000 eggs at a time. Limpets go on traveling expeditions at night, but by a wonderful homing instinct, return to exactly the same spot on their "home" rock. Whelks have from 220 to 250 teeth each, the winkle possesses a set of 3,500, but the dental outfit of the "umbrella shell" is 750,000 teeth. The sea urchin has four different kinds of spines, each with a specialized function—weapons, poison barriers, "chewers" and cleaners. A giant clam will weigh 500 pounds. A fifty-four-pound egg was found to possess 28,361,000 eggs.—Boston Transcript.

Colonel—I have not forgiven him. My daughter takes after her mother—London Til-Bills.

His Way of Knowing.

Dobson—How many years have you been married?

Todson—Haven't been married a year.

Dobson—What? I know better.

Todson—Well, my wife was 24 when we were married, and she's still 24.

On Her Birthday.

Dobson—Hubby, today a fortune teller told me I was going to Florida for my birthday present."

"She just made a slight miscalculation. Here are some oranges I brought you. Florida is coming to you."

GIVEN A GOOD MOUNT

Assistant—Going to put the print of this chap in riding tights on a card?

Photographer—Sure; give him a good mount!

The Main Thing.

Maud—He said he had only broken heart to offer me.

Marie—Did you accept him in that condition?

Maud—Yes, his bank account was intact.

Ground for Suspicion.

"I'm afraid that bank clerk we hired last week is crooked."

"You should not judge by appearances."

"I am judging by disappearances in this case."

Revised Version.

"What's that old one about a penny saved?"

"Something about being able to save himself a lot of trouble by saving a little money?"—Wayside Tales.

Worse Than Pining.

"Is Richeigh's young widow pining for her husband?"

"Not exactly, but from the way she is making his money fly, it might be said she is wasting away."

Continuing with Increasing Enthusiasm

First comers to this important sale have passed the good word to their friends, urging them too, to come and share its worth-while economies.

There are still almost as many styles to choose from as at the very beginning of this sale, so choosing is sure to be satisfactory in every way.

Styles most wanted for summer are low priced now.
Have you tried Sandals?

These are notable in this sale from a fashion standpoint as for pricing. Satisfaction in selection is assured through the variety of styles which our stock can offer.

'BUDDY' SURELY WAS HUNGRY

Chiefly Through Her Efforts, Those Thousand Herring Disappeared in Double-Quick Time.

"Me and my buddy can eat a thousand of them," was the surprising statement of a resident of the fishing-shore section of one of the Virginia counties bordering on the Potomac river when he witnessed a small haul of herring one afternoon.

"You and your buddy can eat a thousand of 'em?" asked one of a party of farmers waiting to get a load of fish to put away for winter use.

"Who is your buddy?"

The man who had made the boast had been heard to indulge in extravagant conversation before and the gathered farmers concluded they would call what they termed his bluff.

Fifty dollars was the amount of the wager, and the following Tuesday was the time fixed for the eating. The thousand fish were piled near the steamer landing and the man whose buddy was to assist in the eating of them appeared on the appointed hour.

"Just cook a hundred of 'em," he said, "and leave the 900 uncooked ones where they are."

"But where's your buddy?" impudent bystanders chorused.

The hundred herring were cooked and the belle of the fishing shore announced everything in readiness for the feast.

"Is that your buddy?" asked the man interested to the amount of $50 in the transaction. "You call that your buddy?"

"Sure," was the response.

They were talking about a 300-pound sow that had had nothing to eat since the day the wager was placed, and "me and buddy" succeeded in a successful performance of the disappearing act.—Exchange.

Manuel Herrick

Manuel Herrick, former representative from Oklahoma, when he styled himself "the aerial daredevil of congress," was photographed as he left the district court house in Washington, D. C., where his former secretary, Miss Ethelyn Crane, whom he sued for $50,000 for failing to marry him, made sensational charges against him. She alleged that Herrick sought to get her to marry him clandestinely so he could enter libel suits against papers which had mentioned his love affair.

Honoring the marriage of Miss Mary Alice Jackson and Homer Elyson, an event of last Saturday, a wedding dinner was served at the bride's home Thursday night to 44 guests.

The home was prettily decorated as were the tables with pink and white sweet peas. The guests were seated at three tables, 14 being placed at the bridal table. Mrs. Elyson was attractively gowned in her wedding costume of white crepe de chine. The three tables were served by Misses Mildred Mercer and Ana Denton and Wendell Gilbert and Charles Malmsberry.

Among the guests was Robert Elyson, 84, grandfather of the groom. He was one of the jolliest members of the crowd. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods and daughter, Grace, of Canton were present.

The couple received many beautiful gifts.

COUNCIL LISTENS TO PROTEST ABOUT VILLAGE LIGHTING

Attorneys Secured To Make Investigation Of Harmony Co. Contract.

Columbiana, July 20.—The meeting of the city council Tuesday evening was in the nature of a protest meeting as there were 40 citizens present to discuss the unsatisfactory lighting of the town.

After much discussion which at times was lively a resolution was passed by the council employing Billingsby and Moore, attorneys of Lisbon, to make an investigation of the contract between the Ohio Harmony Electric company and the village of Columbiana and report their decisions at an early meeting of the council.

Other matters of importance were the resolution by council to pave Lisbon st from the intersection of Union st to the corporation line and to investigate the cost of sewerage of Oakland park edition on South Main st and the north addition lying beyond where Main st and Salem rd. meet.

1921 Graduates Meet

The graduating class of 1921 Columbiana High school met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Esterly Wednesday evening at which time plans were made to effect a permanent organization and hold an annual meeting of the class. The time for the first meeting will be determined later.

four by taking second and third places in the knot tying, tent pitching, signalling and water boiling contests.

One minute—a new record—was consumed by the winning gaid. George McCullough and Frank Davidson, in tying the spiral reverse and two triangular bandages on Billy Alman. Orville Huffman and Clarence Davidson finished second with Glen Arnold as their patient.

Third place was awarded by Deputy Commissioner Frederick Kenreich to Raymond Cobourn, William Floyd, and this patient, Eldon Long of Troop 7 because of the neater appearance of their bandages after they had finished one second behind Van Syoc and Shears of Troop 3 and their victim, Troop 1 finished in fifth and sixth places, their teams being Miller, Grafton and Litty and W. Baker, Chamberlain and N. Baker.

Grafton Leads All

Jim Grafton followed up his victory in the swim with a victory in the water boiling contest, making his quart gall bubble over in six minutes and forty seconds for another new record. This makes Grafton the individual point winner of the meet with 11½ tallies to his credit. Jim Gregg, also of Troop 1, stands second with nine points and Kenneth Kelley of Troop 7 is third with 8½ points.

Orville Huffman more than redeemed his slip-up on the county meet by taking second in the fire lighting event while Clarence Davidson, another Troop 7 patrol leader, finished third. The fire lighting and water boiling event attracted the largest number of entries who have yet reported and interest was keen.

The half-mile relay ran true to predictions with Troops 1, 7 and 3 finishing in order named after a close race. The victors were McArthur, Hack, W. Baker and Gregg. Second place went to Cobourn, Kelley, O. Huffman and Horton. Sidinger, Van Syoc, Thomas and Shear took third. The race was one minute and nineteen seconds.

WOMEN OF THREE GENERATIONS
The daughter, mother and grandmother have all proved from personal experience the remarkable strengthening and tonic properties of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming the ills of women. It was first made from root and herbs in 1873 by Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for her neighbors and friends. Its fame has spread from shore to shore until it is now looked upon by women everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills. It has been proved that it benefits 98 out of every 100 women who try it, which is a marvelous record for any remedy to hold.

"INTERNATIONAL BANKER" A MYTH

Otto H. Kahn Refutes Idea That Foreign Finance Activities Dull Allegiance to America.

BANKING REFLECTS BUSINESS

"International Farmer" and Other Business Men Who Sell to Foreign Markets Create Demand for International Financial Service.

The idea that bankers engaged in financing foreign trade and in handling foreign bond flotations are a particular cult of "international bankers" actuated by motives differing from those of other bankers was refuted recently by Otto H. Kahn of New York, in an address before the Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

"There is no such thing as an International Banker in America, as the meaning of the term is generally understood," Mr. Kahn said. "He exists in the imagination of people all too numerous, but he does not exist in the flesh. You might just as well speak of the 'International Farmer' because the farmer sells a certain percentage of his crops to Europe, or of the 'International Manufacturer.'

"The banker maintains, and can maintain, international contact, and conduct international business, only to the extent that American industry, commerce and agriculture are international. True, the banker must take within his purview continuously the conditions of affairs and the current of things throughout the world, but so must the exporter and importer, and so must the farmer take into account the prices and tendencies of the world market in Liverpool.

Banking Mostly Home Business

"The American banker's market is the home market. His success is conditioned upon the capacity and willingness of the American investor to absorb the securities which he offers. His very existence depends upon the confidence and co-operation of the public and of his fellow-bankers—and any banker whose activities would justly create the impression that he was actuated by cosmopolitan rather than by American interests would very soon lose that confidence and following."

"The business which he does for his own account in, with, or for Europe, is inconsiderable as compared to the business he does in America. His principal functions in relation to Europe are to provide the requisite banking facilities for export and import, and for travelers. That part of his functions which consists in financing loans of foreign governments or industries has hitherto been, with sporadic exceptions, of relatively inconsiderable proportions as compared to the vastness of the volume of his transactions in financing American industry, commerce and enterprise.

Necessity for Foreign Credits

"In saying this, I do not mean to imply that there is anything that calls for apology in the floating of foreign loans in America and in the loaning of American funds to Europe, provided such loans are considered sound to security and are made for legitimate construction purposes. Indeed, such loans ought to, and I believe will, be made in increasing measure, when conditions in Europe will have become such as to warrant it."

"It is manifest that the promotion of our export trade, including, of course, the export of farm products, requires us, under the circumstances as they now are and are likely to remain for some time, to aid the purchasing power of other nations by extending to them financial facilities to a reasonable extent."

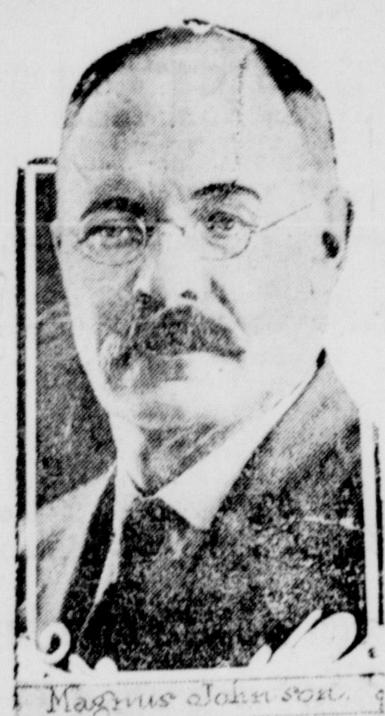

"It is the function of the banker to be instrumental in carrying out such transactions. In doing so, he is the means of serving a useful, national purpose, just as he served a useful, indeed a highly important national purpose, in being the means of attracting and bringing European capital to America in former years when conditions were reversed and such capital was nothing less than vital to the development of this country and the realization of its opportunities."

FOR SOUND MONEY

Senator Oddie of Nevada, chairman of the United States Senate commission to investigate the problems of gold and silver mining, has allayed the fear that Western Senators, in their zeal to aid the cause of silver, might launch an unsound money wave. "I am for sound money," Senator Oddie says. "There is no thought of bimetallism or departing from the gold standard. We desire to help the great mining industry, but not through the creation of an unsound currency."

The commission is to study and report on the causes of the continuing decrease in the production of gold and silver; the causes of the depressed condition of the gold and silver mining industry in the United States; the production, reduction, refining, transportation, marketing, sale, and uses of gold and silver in the United States and elsewhere; and the effect of the decreased production of gold and silver upon commerce, industry, exchange and prices.

GOVERNMENT COST THREE BILLION IN YEAR SAYS REPORT

Washington, July 20.—Expenditures of the Federal government "chargeable against ordinary receipts" during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, totaled $3,697,478,020.26, according to an official report published by the treasury.

Public debt expenditures were listed as $7,963,795.17, of which $402,850,000 was credited to debt retirement.

The Veterans Bureau led all government departments in disbursements during the year, with $461,719,000; the War department accounted for $392,733,000; Interior for $354,623,000 and Navy for $332,201,000.

Expenses of the White House, or "executive proper," as it was listed in the report, increased from $218,690 in 1922 to $349,380. The Post office department showed a reduction in its demands on the treasury from $3,384,000 in 1922 to $146,942,000 in the fiscal year, which was said by officials to be due to economy measures and an increase in postal receipts.

An analysis of the nearly $8,000,000,000 item for the public debt showed that it was composed almost wholly of redemption of various short term bonds.

CLEMENCY BOARD REINSTALLED

Russell and Williams Named as the Members.

WOMEN TO ACT AS ADVISORS

Governor Donahay Takes Cognizance of Gambling Complaints From Cleveland—Host of Paroles Granted
During the Fiscal Year Ending
June 30—Former Storekeeper at Lancaster School Exonerated.

Columbus, July 20.—Welfare Director John E. Harper has announced the appointment of Price Russell of Wayne county and Daniel W. Williams of Jackson county as the two members of the new bipartisan board of clemency. They will receive an annual salary of $4,500.

In announcing the appointment of two men for the board instead of one man and one woman, it was explained that the nature of the work among prisoners was not exactly to a woman's liking and that a very small percentage of parole applicants came from the Marysville reformatory for women. To meet the women's needs, Governor Donahay will name two women, one a Republican and one a Democrat, to act as an advisory body to the board on the Marysville paroles.

Price Russell, the Democratic member of the board, will serve for four years. He was executive secretary to Governor Donahay until recently. Russell has been a member of the general assembly, was former state superintendent of insurance, and was a member of the board of clemency in 1921, when it was abolished to make way for the three-member board of pardons and parole, which was, in turn, abolished by the last legislature.

Daniel W. Williams, the Republican member of the new board, will serve two years. He is editor of the Jackson Standard-Journal, a former state senator and was consul to Cardiff, Wales, under Roosevelt. Last August he was defeated for the Republican nomination for governor. Ben Ames Williams, the author, is the son and Mrs. Ray Sims of Columbus, the daughter of the new appointee.

Governor Donahay has addressed a communication to Law Director Paul M. Lamb of Cleveland directing attention to gambling complaints that have been received at the executive offices and inquiring with regard to an opinion handed down by Lamb in which the latter is reported to have advised Mayor Fred Kohler that certain kinds of slot machine operated in Cleveland were not illegal. A copy of the opinion was requested by the governor. At the same time the governor sent a telegram to the editor of a Cleveland newspaper advising him of the letter to the law director and indicating that further action would be held in abeyance until a reply from Lamb is forthcoming.

The governor has ordered mayors and sheriffs of a dozen communities to take steps looking to the elimination of minor gambling devices under penalty of removal. It is not indicated at this time whether Mayor Kohler may be favored with such a communication.

More than twenty laws became effective this week, including the following:

Robinson law, making it a felony to harbor a felon, knowing him to be such; Farnsworth law, authorizing the incorporation of co-operative agricultural marketing associations of five or more persons; Atwood law, making penalties for short weights or measures $500 fine or six months' imprisonment; Jenkins law, strengthening the law against misrepresentation of insurance policies; Loughead law, repealing section authorizing special elections for referendum on municipal ordinances; Marshall law, making minor changes in and extending authorization of city planning commissions; Bender law, authorizing duplication of lost checks and other documents; Fouts law, compelling county commissioners to construct and operate free ferries when bridges are destroyed; Orton law, which recodifies the drainage laws already in existence, and Houston law, abolishing the parole board and establishing a bipartisan board of clemency consisting of two members.

Governor Donahay has appointed J. E. Hurst, editor of the New Philadelphia Times, to act as his member of a committee of five authorized by the general assembly to select and purchase 30 acres of land on the original site of Schoenbrunn, Tuscarawas county, the first white settlement in Ohio. Senators W. F. Garver, Holmes county, and Frank C. Wise, Stark county, were named by the president of the senate and Representatives James E. Finefrock, Stark county, and James H. Ebright, Tuscarawas county, were named by the speaker of the house.

Old Age Pension Advocates Present Their Arguments

The following statement, prepared by proponents of the old age pension movement, has been brought to the attention of The News by H. W. Pealey: Considering the perverseness of human nature, it was to be expected that objectors to old age pensions would make themselves heard. There had never been a welfare movement, social, economic, or political that has not been met with dire prophecies of evil results.

This was the case in the matter of establishing free public schools, in providing pensions for needy widowed mothers, in forbidding factory employment of little children and regulating the hours of labor for the older ones, and for women, in demanding safety devices for machinery, and enforcing the demand through state inspectors, and, especially, in abolishing the "fel low servant" responsibility and providing complete compensation from employers for industrial accidents and damages suffered by employees.

Every one of these welfare movements was denounced as an interference with private rights and an assumption of paternalism in government. It is not strange, then, that the reactionaries should raise a howl against the proposed old age pensions to be paid by the state.

In Ohio, particularly, where the intelligent "common people" are manifesting a favorable attitude towards the proposition, a few of the newspapers are voicing a loud protest against it, and by ridicule, sarcasm, and bold denunciation are striving to arouse the prejudice and fears of the taxpayers. The proposition that "Old Age Pensions are a debt of the state to the builders of the country," is ridiculed but not answered. Instead there is a confusion of generalities and a cunning appeal to selfishness.

Quotes From Paper

The following, taken from an editorial in a prominent paper is a fair example of a following all:

"The claim that old age pensions are a debt of the state to the builders of the country is in line with the general tendency toward more and more paternalism in government. More and more we look to the government to supply our needs and grant our desires, to substitute its subsidies for our commercial alertness and efficiency, to replace our diligence, thrift, and forethought with its pensions. Apparently, the theory, a ridiculously and pathetically false one, is that when we get something from the government, we get it for nothing. Anything we permit the willing govern-

Dread of Pauperism

The advocates of old age pensions are presenting a better way. The true method of caring for the aged should not only seek to relieve the immediate needs, but should aim to prevent dependency and thus ultimately reduce the cost of caring for the poor.

A very helpful step would be to inspire the laborer during his earning years with a pleasing hope of a comfortable age instead of depressing him with fears of pauperism with its disgrace and suffering. As Carlyle once said: "What makes a man wretched is to live miserably; to work, save, and yet gain nothing; to be heartworn, weary, yet isolated, unrelated, girt in with a cold laisser faire."

A high sounding bit of camouflage! All the facts are ignored and the true question is avoided. The false assumption that it is an attempt to get something for nothing is coolly made, but there is no attempt to substantiate it. Instead there is a wordy tirade against paternalism in government.

Argument Answered

Against this, the advocates of old age pensions present an array of facts. From careful study of the U. S. census of 1910, L. T. Squier, a prominent social economist, found that the dependent population of the nation, above the age of 65 years outside of insane asylums and correctional institutions is now costing the taxpayers $220,000,000 every year.

Similarly the Massachusetts legislative investigation found that for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1915, there were in that state, 34,496 of the same class, at an annual cost of $2,233,948.74. A like commission in Ohio found that for the year 1915, the city and county infirmaries cost $1,455,944.

A Pennsylvania commission found similar figures, but it went also into the management of the pauper in institutions, discovering grave abuses, the managers being mostly political appointees caring only for their own emoluments. The condition of the inmates was found pitiful and in many cases revolting.

In the present system, indeed, the editor might find an appropriate text for his sermon on governmental mismanagement, and costly paternalism. The logic of his editorial would require that all this pauper care for the dependent should be abolished, because the poor wretches are "getting something for nothing!" Would the editor leave them to starve? Or, more merciful would he favor killing them off as do the South Sea Islanders—

TOLLS COLLECTED DURING THE LAST YEAR WERE GREATEST SINCE THE OPENING.

"DITCH" PROVES ITS WORTH

Zone Is One of Uncle Sam's Largest Military Reservations—What Has Become of Some of the Men Who Built the Canal.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—A government report shows that the Panama canal tolls collected for the past year were greater than those paid in for any previous year since the waterway was opened for traffic in October, 1914. The canal has proved its worth in money to the government of the United States.

The canal zone of today does not look like the same zone fifteen years ago. Today, except for the constables which are under the regulation of the government of Panama, the canal zone, save for its tropical setting, is much like a small cross section of America. On the canal strip there is stationed a division of United States troops. The zone constitutes one of the largest military reservations, so far as the number of troops is concerned, that Uncle Sam controls.

What has become of the men who built the Panama canal? For a period of seven years, and in the case of one man for a period of ten years, the names of certain army and navy officers connected with the canal work were household words in America. The building of the canal was accounted one of the greatest engineering achievements that the world ever knew. The locks, the dams and the spillways have stood the test unshaken of ten years of service.

Doctor Gorgas Is Dead.

Perhaps the greatest name connected with the Panama canal construction is that of William Crawford Gorgas, "the man who made the canal possible." Doctor Gorgas, who was in the medical corps of the United States army, had cleared Havana, Cuba, of yellow fever and had formulated the means by which any plague spot could be kept forever free from the disease. His work in Havana and his formulating of plans and methods to overcome yellow fever began immediately after the discovery by Walter Reed and others that a mosquito transmitted the disease.

Doctor Gorgas was sent to Panama to clear the isthmus of its scourge three years in advance of the time that the army engineers were put in charge of the actual construction work. He made the canal zone the healthiest spot on earth. If there had been no Gorgas there would have been no Panama canal, or at least this seems to be the general opinion of mankind.

Doctor Gorgas afterward became the surgeon general of the United States. After the war when he was on the retired list of the army, the British government asked him to go to Africa to combat and overcome certain diseases conditions in British possessions. He was taken ill in London and died in the military hospital in that city. The king decorated him on his deathbed, and the British people honored him with a funeral in St. Paul's. He rests today in Arlington cemetery near this city.

General Sibert on a Farm.

Maj. Gen. William L. Sibert, who built the Gatun Locks dam and spillway, is today living on a farm near Bowling Green, Ky. General Sibert lived and worked on a farm as a boy, and he always has loved farm life. He went to West Point, and after graduating served nearly thirty-five years in the engineering corps of the regular army. The French say that General Sibert is the world's greatest engineer. The locks which he constructed at Panama are the largest in the world. They have stood the test of constant use and the twice repeated test of earthquakes. During the war, General Sibert commanded a division in France and later was made chief of the chemical warfare service.

David DuBose Gaillard, who dug the Culebra cut and broke the backbone of the American continent, is dead. With Sibert he ranked as one of the greatest engineers of the world. He was stricken with an incurable disease just in the hour of the final triumph of his work of seven years on the Isthmus. He completed the cut, looked on his handwork, felt the gratifying thrill of accomplishment and then succumbed to his arduous labor in the tropics. President Wilson, by executive order, changed the name of the Culebra cut to Gaillard cut in honor of this man of heroic endeavor.

Evidently Hadn't the Gift.

Boffkins had brought home a piece of silver ore as a curiosity for his young wife.

"Fancy getting silver out of this piece of stone," she said. "Do you know how they get it, dear?"

"Do you mean by what process?" asked Boffkins.

"Yes, dear."

"They smelt it," said Boffkins.

"Oh, fancy that!" said his better half.

"Well, that's very funny," she remarked about ten minutes later.

"What's funny?" asked Boffkins, looking up from his paper.

"I've smelt it ever so often, and not a scrap of silver has come out yet."

CLEMENCY BOARD

the finance director to submit payrolls based on salary schedules obtaining at the close of the fiscal year, June 30, 1923. It was indicated by the budget commissioner's office. Thus means that all state employees with the exception of those in the industrial department have received their checks for the first two weeks in July. Payrolls prepared with increases in salary allowed by the civil service commission were rejected by the board of control last week because the new salaries had not been approved by the board, and as a result the director of Finance asked that the old schedules be submitted in order to prevent delay in paying the employees. The board is expected to take action on the new rates this week.

H. E. Rose, former storekeeper at the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster, who was dismissed from service on May 19, has been given a clean bill of health in a report filed with State Auditor Tracy. The report, prepared by Examiners F. M. Hooper, William V. Miller and W. T. Gordon, is the result of an examination made following the forwarding by Welfare Director John E. Harper to the auditor of a letter written by Acting Superintendent John McNamara in which complaints were registered concerning the condition of accounts at the institution.

The discrepancies were charged against Robert P. Drake, former chief clerk, in the McNamara report, whose successor, Robert U. Hastings, Jr., son of the former superintendent, found that the report concerning Drake's incumbency made by an examiner of the welfare department was incorrect.

The incorrectness of the report was acknowledged by Examiner John Walder, according to the auditor's examiners, who indicate that balances were set up in the cash book arbitrarily to correspond with the amount of cash on hand. No loss was sustained by the transaction and it is shown that lack of detail in keeping books at the institution was responsible for the discrepancies.

McNamara had reported to the welfare director that he had found unpaid invoices amounting to $20,000. The report of Examiners Miller and Gordon avers that "as to unpaid invoices, amounting to approximately $20,000, we find that these were all signed as to the goods being received, showing date of receipt of both invoice and goods on institution stamp and that on May 21, 1923, there were forwarded vouchers to the department of public welfare amounting to $11,346.34 and on May 26, to the amount of $2,814.77, all from the maintenance appropriations, and $3,183 from additions and betterments appropriations. There remain yet to be voucherized invoices amounting to about $5,000, which can not be voucherized until there is a transfer by the controlling board or assignment of funds by the department from other sources from which payment can be appropriately made."

Five veterans of the old Fourth Ohio Infantry were named by Governor Donahoe to officiate at the unveiling of a tablet to the memory of their comrades who died in Porto Rico during the Spanish-American war. The ceremony is to be held at Guayama, Porto Rico, on Aug. 5, and the legislature appropriated $5,000 to defray the cost of the tablet and its unveiling, whatever surplus remains to be used in paying the expenses of the committee.

The committee is composed of Colonel George B. Donavin, Lieutenant Colonel George P. Zwerner, Otho Noble and W. R. Jones of Columbus, and Lester Riddle of Delaware. Alternates are Lieutenant Colonel Arthur W. Reynolds of Columbus, W. S. Haley of Toledo, Edson P. Cott, Dr Harry H. Hunt of Newark, and Nathan A. McCoy of Columbus.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, there were 2,369 prisoners paroled from Ohio state penal institutions, according to a report made by J. E. Clark, chairman of the old board of pardons and paroles. During the year 4,369 cases were heard by the board, of which number 2,020 were rejected, the per cent of paroles granted to the number of applications being 54.

The report shows that during the year the board heard 2,047 cases at the penitentiary, 1,918 at the reformatory at Mansfield and 42 at the reformatory for women at Marysville. Paroles were granted to 1,008 prisoners at the penitentiary, 1,185 at the reformatory at Mansfield and 176 at Marysville.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, the board granted only 1,917 paroles out of the 4,167 which were heard. The percentage of paroles rejected in 1922 was exactly the same as the number granted in 1923 or 54 per cent of all cases which reached the board.

When the new board of clemency begins to function at the Ohio penitentiary, at least one feature of the administration of the pardon and parole board will be retained. The clemency board was discarded under Davis administration, but when the pardon and parole board took charge the lettering on the front door of the board room was not changed. It was still the board of clemency as far as outward appearances were concerned.

The new law providing for the disbanding of the pardon and parole board and the reinstatement of the board of clemency went into effect Sunday.

It just takes 10 seconds to hang a milk bucket on a scale, record the weight and pour the milk into the can. Twice a day means 20 seconds a day for each cow.

Don't you think that is mighty little effort to use in checking up and finding out whether or not those cows are paying you a profit?

Lots of dairymen who never gave the matter any thought or never actually figured their cost of grain feed per pound of milk are beginning to do so now. The man who is taking chances on profits or failure in the dairy business is the one that does not know what his cows are doing.

We will be glad to tell you how you can make a very profitable test on your cows with Cow Chow and how you can obtain a milk scale at manufacturer's cost and free milk record sheets. Just write, call or phone us.

TENDER HAS K.O. READY FOR BENNY

Challenger Says He'll Win
By a Knockout Next Monday Night.

Delanco, N. J., July 20.—In the mind of Lew Tender, a new lightweight champion has already been crowned in succession to Benny Leonard. And the new champion is Lew Tender. The only formality that remains is the actual knocking out of Leonard in their bout next Monday night, and this Tender avers, will be accomplished.

"I will win and by a knockout," the Philadelphia challenger said, in the same matter-of-fact manner of one discussing a certainty. "I had Leonard's number in our last fight but this time I'll score more decisively. I feel excellent and I won't have the slightest difficulty in making his weight."

"He is at the 135-pound limit now," Phil Glassman, Tender's manager interrupted. "Lew will win sure. He is in great shape and will cop by a knockout."

The challenger appeared in good condition. He was told of reports that his right hand was in bad shape. Before he could answer, Glassman chimed in:

"Say, there is nothing to that. Lew's hands are in wonderful shape. They were never better."

Tender was asked if it was not disconcerting to be the short man in the betting. The early odds have made Leonard a 9 to 5 favorite. Tender shook his head in the negative. Glassman supplied the answer.

"Say, betting odds don't mean anything. They don't always forecast the result. We don't care if Leonard is 10 to 1 favorite. Leonard should be favorite. He is the champion, isn't he?"

Tender said he had no special plan of battle. So many things come up in the course of a hard bout, he said, that the original plan is lost.

"But I'll be in there to win and I'll win by a knockout," he declared.

OLD AGE PENSION

more room, and more clothing and better education for their children in education that would help them to become more proficient workers and greater producers for the state.

Evil is Increased
If the choice be made to support the parents, sacrificing not only their own good, but the interests of their children, the evil is increased. Under nourishment and life in unsanitary quarters saps the vitality of childhood. Compelled to leave school early and join the members of unskilled workers, the coming generation is doomed to deterioration, less efficiency and earlier age-disability, thus keeping up the vicious cycle to the great loss of the state.

The opponents of old age pensions sometimes ask why the workers do not in their prime "lay by" for old age. The answer is that they cannot. Low wages, unemployment, sickness, accident or adverse circumstances cut short the net income leaving nothing for the future. The $220,000,000 a year the taxpayers are paying for the pauper support is ample evidence. It is sometimes insinuated that an as-

Wheat Buying Urged To Keep Prices Up

Chicago, July 20.—Urging the housewife to buy a barrel of flour, the general public to purchase individually 1,000 bushels of wheat for future delivery and everybody to eat one more slice of bread daily, a plan to combat dropping wheat and flour prices has been endorsed by George E. Marcy, president of the Armour Grain Company, and is advocated by commission houses and grain men here.

Still further, the benefits of the pension are confined to the industrious, so the idle, the riotous, and the profligate can still go to the poorhouse.

That the chief element in growth and prosperity of a state or nation is the wealth produced by its toilers in the mines, the workshops and on the farms cannot be successfully denied. That these toilers are entitled to a comfortable support during all their lives is a simple matter of justice. That in our industrial system, they are not paid sufficient for this is a patent to all students of social economy. That the state which ultimately profits from their labor should pay the balance due them in a simple matter of equity.

CRUIKSHANK CRUBRO PRESERVES

Strawberry

Hand Selected — Ideally Prepared

Only the choicest, large, rich red, meaty Strawberries are used. Our scientific process of preparing assures uniform quality.

The Cruikshank method of preparation retains the whole fruit, the original berry juice flavor and all the tempting goodness of big ripe strawberries to the last bite.

Crubro Strawberry Preserves are better than home made and cost much less. They have no equal at the price, considering their high quality and the quantity contained in the convenient Keystone Jar package.

SALEM BOOT SHOP 103 MAIN STREET :: SALEM, OHIO UNLOADING SALE

This is our first sale and we are making history in selling shoes. It is not our policy to have sales often, but when we do it is to clear stocks—and WE ARE CLEANING HOUSE RIGHT.

We have everything arranged on tables and racks marked in plain figures, so arrange to be here Saturday and expect to buy two pairs for the price of one, as every pair of this season's shoes must be sold.

UNICORN

Anything cheap is usually worth less than it costs. It's quality that counts in mixed feeds the same as in anything else. Find out what QUALITY means.
